AMERICAN NEEDLE COTTON GIN.

Five Years of Triumph and These Gins are Still Without Peer.

THE NEEDLE GIN must soon super cede the old Saw Gin. Its superiority consists in yielding more lint from the same quantity of seed cotton, and of a superior quality, the lint selling in market from one-half to one cent more per pound. This is the testimony of hundreds who have used them. At the Wilmington Fair, N. C., a test trial was, made between the celebrated Taylor Saw to ourselves, Sustenance and Protection. Gin was 100 lbs., each Gin being forty Saws or Circles.

Taylor Gin consumed nine minutes Needle Gin consumed six misutes
